

BRUCE LIPKA
Director of Tennis

Hall of Fame member and USPTA Master Professional Bruce Lipka has led Woodmont's tennis operations since 2000. As a former ATP Player and ATP, WTA, and collegiate coach, known for his unique insight and observations into the sport of tennis, Bruce brings a great deal of passion, experience, and enthusiasm to the courts. His success on the court and commitment to helping his players reach their potential has earned him multiple accolades, including USPTA Professional of the Year (4 times) and MAC Coach of the Year (3 times, Miami University). At the collegiate level, Bruce won championships as a player and as a coach. Bruce has won titles as an age group player as well on the sectional, national and international levels. Bruce continues to be active as a player, representing the United States annually in various international team competitions. Bruce serves as an executive committee member for the USIC and is also the Men's Captain.

Bruce holds a Master's Degree in Sport Psychology from the University of Florida as well as being a graduate of the USTA High Performance Coaching Program. Bruce has hosted over 100 episodes on blog talk radio and has published several articles on various websites.