

JUAN CARLOS ESCUDERO

Director of Junior Tennis

Juan Carlos Escudero has been the Director of Junior Tennis at Woodmont Country Club since 2015. He enjoys teaching all ages and ability levels. Before arriving at Woodmont, Juan held various director positions in his home country of Puerto Rico for over 25 years.

As a player, Juan was a two-time Player of the Year in the Ohio Valley Conference. Juan's success as a player at Tennessee Tech led to his induction into their athletic hall of fame. Juan was also the Puerto Rico Doubles national champion as a player.

As a coach, Juan has developed Nationally ranked players, NCAA championship players, of whom several went on to have successful ATP and WTA careers. In 2005, Juan achieved one of his most significant achievements as Puerto Rico Fed Cup Captain when the team reached the World Group for the first time. Juan captained the Fed Cup team for almost 20 years. Juan holds USTA, USPTA and ITF coaching credentials.